

15 October 1954

MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. James C. Hagerty
Secretary to the President (Press)
The White House

Attached is the proposed release I spoke to you about. Naturally I have not cleared it with the President. However, I am trying to get in touch with General Doolittle and as soon as I speak to him I will call you.

A.W.D.

Encl.

Approved for Release 10/17/54

USAF (Ret.)

Lieutenant General James Doolittle, /as head of a small study group, was asked by the President to look at certain phases of the work of the Central Intelligence Agency and he has now completed this study. The President feels that such periodic reviews are conducive to good government and serve to give him an independent appraisal of the sensitive aspects of the Agency. The Doolittle study does not duplicate the work of the task force of the Hoover Commission under General Mark W. Clark which is particularly studying the overall organizational problems of the U. S. intelligence services.

15 October 1954

USAF-RET
Lieutenant General James Doolittle, as head of a small study group, was asked by the President to look at certain phases of the work of the Central Intelligence Agency and he has now completed this study. The President feels that such periodic reviews are conducive to good government and serve to give him an independent appraisal of the sensitive aspects of the Agency. The Doolittle study does not duplicate the work of the task force of the Hoover Commission under General Mark W. Clark which is particularly studying the overall organizational problems of the U. S. intelligence services.

STAT

15 October 1954